I had an accident on April 25, 2026 in the early morning hours. If I remember correctly it was around 4:20am or 4:40am. The person that called 911 about the tree falling in the road before I had my accident was located at 5120 Raymond Rd. JPD officers did not respond to that call. I called the police myself when I wrecked my vehicle & two officers showed up. The Risk Management department is saying that the records only shows a call from me but I know that isn't true because it was a accident at 5120 Raymond Rd that had occurred before I even made the call. Once the homeowner at the address above stated that he had called reporting a tree falling & a accident occurred that's what made me put
